

Canola Workshop – Great Falls, MT

November 29, 2021

Agenda (subject to change)

9:30 a.m. – Registration, refreshments, vendor tables open

10:00 a.m. – Welcome and Introductions

10:15 a.m. – MSU Research Updates

Clint Beiermann, NWARC and Simon Fordyce, CARC

11:00 a.m. – Getting into the Weeds – Managing Herbicide Carryover; Preplant and In-crop Herbicide Strategies

Tim Seipel, MSU Weed Scientist and Brian Jenks, NDSU weed scientist (virtual)

12:00 p.m. – LUNCH

1:00 p.m. – Getting the Most Out of Your Canola Seed

Angela Brackenreed, Agronomy Specialist, Canola Council of Canada (virtual)

1:45 p.m. – Canola Pests – Identification, Thresholds, and Control Options

Jim Davis, University of Idaho (virtual) and Matt Smith, BASF

2:15 p.m. – Canola Nutrient Management: Strategies for Efficient Use of Costly Fertilizer Following Drought

Clain Jones, MSU (virtual)

3:00 pm. – Marketing Canola in MT

Daniel Stenbakken, Viterra and Justin Hager, Montana Specialty Mills

3:30 p.m. – Winter Canola Production in Montana

Jim Davis, University of Idaho (virtual) and Curt Droogsma, Winfield United

4:00 p.m. – Precision Harvest: Why Measuring Harvest Loss Can be Your Biggest Advantage

Chris "Dutch" van Meijl, Bushel Plus and Brad Birch, MT Ag

4:30 p.m. – Why We Grow Canola in MT – Grower Panel

Nate Aschim, Sunburst; Charlie Cahill, Flaxville; Matt/Terry DeBorde, Ft. Benton; Dale Flikkema, Bozeman

Beer 'n' Bull Session

* Agenda subject to change

* We have received 5.5 CEUs and 2 pesticide recertification credits each for categories 10, 30, 39, and 60.

*** REGISTER today at www.pnwcanola.org ***

Thank you to our sponsors:

Pacific Northwest Canola Association

Growing the canola industry in the Pacific Northwest through education, advocacy, and marketing