

SOIL HEALTH & CROPPING SYSTEMS TOUR

Join Palouse Conservation District & University of Idaho Extension on

MONDAY, JUNE 24
8:00am-12:00pm

The tour will begin four miles south of Uniontown, WA and conclude six miles northeast of Genesee, ID. Participants will travel to a total of four sites. Transportation is required and carpooling is encouraged. Lunch will be provided.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

- Soil moisture, soil health, and beneficial insects in cover crop trials
- Winter wheat variety trials
- Integrating livestock and cover crops into small grains rotations
- Implications of crop rotations for weed control and crop diversity
- And more!

REGISTER NOW

SCAN QR CODE
OR VISIT

PalouseCD.org

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS:

Natural Resources
Conservation Service
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

National Association of Conservation Districts

